THE EVENING DISPATCH.
PROVO CITY, FEB. 7, 1895

Be sure and get your basket lunch ready in time for the grand old time dance to be given in the opera house next Monday evening.

HAVE you concluded what character you will sustain at the character dress ball to be given in the opera house on the evening of the 14th?

TAYLOR BROTHERS company of this city, agents for the Emerson Piano company of Boston, yesterday afternoon delivered to the B. Y. academy a fine Emerson Parlor Grand piano.
This is the largest and undoubtedly the best piano ever brought into Utah, and to say that professor Giles, who has charge of the musical department of the school and who is pianist for the institution, is delighted with it, is saying it all too mildly. He is enraptured with it and the whole school, professors and pupils, are more than proud of it. The instrument is placed in the institution by the manufacturers as a compliment to the school, the use of it as long as wanted being free. On Thursday night next a grand concert will be given at the academy at which the public will have an opportunity to hear the piano.
Professors Clive and Pyper will be concert from Salt Lake to assist in the concert and some of the best local talent will also appear on the program.

WE wish to state to our patrons that One Minute Cough Cure is a safe and reliable remedy for children troubled with croup, colds, hoarseness and lung troubles. It is pleasant to take and quickly cures. Smoot Drug com-not fail to call at Boshard & Saxey's.

Now drink wine. The best brands at the low price of 35 cents per bottle, or three bottles for $1.00 at the Eureka saloon. A carload of angelica, port, sherry, claret and Reising wines has just been received by Mr. Harrison and it will be sold out at these ridiculously low prices.

Don't forget to drop in at Boshard & Saxey's when in want of anything to eat.

In these days of telephone, telegraph, electricity and steam, people cannot afford to wait days or as many hours for relief. This is our reason for offering you One Minute Cough Cure.
Neither days, nor hours, nor even minutes elapse before relief is afforded.

JACK DOWNS of Nephi, the young man who got into trouble with the editor of the Courier of that place, was in Provo yesterday consulting a lawyer upon his case. Jack says that he never was placed under $2,000.00 bonds; that he pleaded guilty to assault and battery and was fined $10.00, but later when he rustled the ducks together the officers had changed their minds and refused to accept the fine.
The trouble occurred, he says, in this way: Miller was quite drunk, and had bothered him in the afternoon for horse and buggy. Mr. Downs runs a livery stable and he had refused Miller not considering him good pay. Later Miller came into the stable with an enormous bill for advertising, etc., which Mr. Downs repudiated and told the newspaper man to call again when he was sober and a settlement would be had. Miller at that began to abuse Downs and call him vile names and Jack got hot and without thought struck Miller with the first thing his hands lit upon, which was a small hammer.

JIM McADLEY of Springville, the inveterate whisky seller of that prohibition town, who has paid many fines and who has spent a term in the county jail for selling to minors, was arrested yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Wilkins on the same old charge of selling whisky to minors, and brought over to Provo. He was taken before Justice DeMossy who set the case for Friday.
In the meantime McAdley was allowed to go on his own recognizance.

RALPH OAKLEY of Springville was taken before Judge King today and the judge sentenced him to be taken to the reform school at Ogden, there to remain until he is twenty-one years of age or until sooner released for good behavior. It is said to be eighteen years old in March next. It develops that this boy's case is not so serious as it has been thought. He did put the skychnine in the water, but at the time did not know what the drug was, and after learning what it was (he asked the officer) he emptied the bucket. Before doing this he had told the people about the office that there was something in the water that made him sick when he drank it. The situation in which the boy found himself was a peculiar one. He was charged with a felony and the case would go before the grand jury which body undoubtedly would indict him. Pending a hearing he probably could not give bonds, and any way it was very desirable that the case should be dismissed, and thus allowed to hang over the young man who seems to have thoroughly repented. He has been what is called a rather wild boy, but not considered bad at heart. He has been under the care of his grandmother, his mother living at Ogden, and the family not knowing whether his father lives or is dead. There was only one course open, to accept sentence to the reform school, go to that institution determined to behave himself and reform, and thus get out soon, and have the serious charge against him dismissed. The boy seems to sense his situation deeply, as does his grandmother, Mrs. Daley, who was present in court and gave testimony before sentence was passed.

FIRST DISTRICT COURT.
Report of Proceedings Before Judge King Yesterday Afternoon and Today.

In the First District court yesterday other than hearing preliminary arguments and evidence in the Salt Lake city et al vs. Joseph H. Colledge et al case, the following business was transacted:

Etta N. Eggertsen vs. Marilla M.
Daniels et al. Decree as prayed for granted. This suit was brought to quiet title decided by Wm. Miller deceased, to the old West Co-op. Mr.
Miller failed to attach his seal to the deed.

Ella Fowler vs. Leonard Fowler.
Parties of Lehi. Decree of divorce granted and $15.00 per month alimony, $25.00 attorney fee and custody of one minor child. Mrs. Fowler's testimony was to the effect that she was married to Leonard W. Fowler about three years ago; that he was addicted to drinking and failed to support her and had threatened her life on several occasions; had once fired a pistol over her head at their home in Lehi and had snapped a pistol at her in Salt Lake city at the home of John Beck where she was visiting at the time. Mrs.
Fowler's testimony was corroborated by her mother, Mrs. Evans, as to the defendant's dissolute habits and his cruelty.

Isaac Voorhees vs. Manti City. By consent this suit was stricken from present setting.

THE UTAH LAKE SUIT.
Interest in this very important suit is still unabated. Crowds of spectators flock in to hear the proceedings.
And it is a case in which all who live in Utah county may well be deeply interested, for it not only involves property interests of many of our citizens but the health of us all and even the lives of many of us. A year or so ago when malarial fever was so prevalent in the towns of Utah county, particularly in Provo, the cause was ascribed, and rightly, to the fact that the waters of Utah lake were backed up too high, causing the balustrades and other vegetation to decay, and from that decayed and decaying mass the winds wafted germs of disease up into the city.

The main bone of contention, it is admitted from the evidence, is to determine the exact location of low water and high water mark at the head of Jordan river. The construction of the balance of the contract and learning under the commission have lived up to it, will be easy. Captain Doremus civil engineer, took bearings, etc., at the time the sand bar was removed from the head of the river and made certain marks. It would seem from cross examination that the defense will contend that these marks are all wrong and that in consequence the water has all along been kept too high, but what the theory and evidence of the defense are, does not yet appear.

The knowing ones "wink the other eye" and say only that when these are laid bare before the court it will surprise the opposition.

THE OAKLEY CASE.
Just before the noon recess of court the case against Ralph Oakley of Springville was heard and he sentenced to the reform school. Particulars appear elsewhere.

The Gentry of Colonial Maryland.
The gentry of colonial Maryland, under the rule of the earlier Calverts, lived on the great plantations in dwellings that were accessible by water. The bay and rivers were almost their only highways, and the obliterated little thorp of St. Mary's, founded on the site of an Indian village whereof the memory is dear to every son of the soil, was their only city. At home they sat on stools and forms and dined without forks, cutting their meat with their rapiers.
But their walls were wainscoted and their chambers comfortably bedded. Tea and coffee they rarely tasted, and sugar was a luxury, but sack and cider and punch flowed freely.

Witness the facitious instructions of Governor Calvert to Colonel Price to bring certain articles to Fort St. Inigo's for the use of the soldiers: "And upon motion of sack the said governor bade him bring sack, if he found any." In the early records of the province there is more sack than Falstaff's drawer ever scored. The colonial gentry dispensed ardent spirits at funerals and dined the sack cup at christenings, and they affected signet rings with their leather breeches and boot hose. Cattle stealing was not in fashion. Only a sheriff of Kent was once charged with that offense, while a governor of Virginia was convicted. Neither was there ever an execution for witchcraft in the province of Maryland.—"Old Maryland Homes and Ways" in Century.

KATIE PUTNAM.
Will Open Her Engagement at the Opera House Tonight.

The advance sale of seats for the Katie Putnam engagement shows no waning of the public's admiration for this dainty little lady. Miss Putnam has been seen here several times before but "age cannot wither nor custom stale her infinite variety." As the in-genue, she is especially successful, her pretty, piquant face, and almost childish freshness of voice, combined with her talent for performing mischievous pranks, make her very popular. The performance tonight is "The Little Maverick."

"IT CURED ME
completely and quickly, and the sooner a cough is cured the less harm it does." He is right. A cough is one of the worst things in the world to have about you, as it seldom or never leaves of itself, and the final result of a neglected cough is apt to be a coffin. Don't make your cough the be-all and the end-all here by letting it alone until it leaves nothing of you, but cure it by the immediate use of our always effective COUGH SYRUP. Taking a cough in time saves life. Our drug and
